

Farah Shuhadah Razali

Partner

Farah regularly acts for local and international clients in a wide range of corporate and commercial disputes ranging from oil & gas downstream business related contracts to product supply agreements as well as debt recovery and insolvency matters.

She also has experience advising and acting in various tortious matters including claims in defamation, conspiracy, trespass, nuisance and negligence involving individuals and class actions claims whilst maintaining a special interest in public and administrative law matters particularly those involving town planning and land issues.

Farah has appeared as counsel and co-counsel at all tiers of the Malaysian courts and played a key role in many landmark cases which are reported in the law journals. Apart from court appearances, Farah also has been involved in commercial arbitrations and mediations.

Her ability to provide 'excellent quality service in delivering practical, comprehensive and clear solutions when dealing with potential or ongoing legal disputes...' has been specifically highlighted in the Legal 500 Asia Pacific where she was listed as a Recommended Lawyer for Dispute Resolution in 2021. Farah was also listed as one of the finalists for the Rising Star Award: Litigation by Women in Business Law Awards (APAC) 2022.
